St Martins Pr, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 13.97 x 20.96 cm. Linda Polman takes us to war zones around the globe to show the often compromised results of aid workers' best intentions. It is time, Polman argues, to impose ethical boundaries, to question whether doing something is always better than doing nothing, and to hold humanitarians responsible for the consequences of their deeds. --from publisher description Our orders are sent from our warehouse locally or directly from our international distributors to allow us to offer you the best possible price and delivery time.
