At Halifax, the fee income is some $5000 a year and the government makes an appropriation of $1200, --a total of $6200. The faculty apportions this sum as follows: three-fourths of the fees are divided among the teachers; one-fourth of the fees plus the government subsidy must carry all other expense, -- heat, light, janitor service, laboratory maintenance: the disgraceful condition of the premises follows as a matter of course. The Hahnemann of Philadelphia, with estimated receipts of $18,500, distributes $11,000 among teaching practitioners and spends perhaps $1500 on equipment and $500 for laboratory material. Advertising and commencement exercises--the latter only another form of advertising--often cost these institutions more than their laboratories. One large eastern institution expends $4700 on publicity, as against...
