If this branch of Education were new, or if the general sentiment of the profession and of mankind had riot been decidedly expressed in its favor, I should feel it incumbent upon me to attempt a plea in its defense. But, since it is neither novel nor destitute of public favor, I have deemed it not inappropriate to ask your attention to the general philosophy of the processes of Education - a topic of vital interest to the well-being of society, and which has elicited the widest discussion, not only with the view of improving details, but of placing the whole system upon a rational foundation, in accordance with the spirit...
