Even with great grades and test scores, you compete against the best in the world for limited spaces at top choice schools. You must finish the detailed tasks required to submit your application AND then convince the admissions officers why YOU deserve a place in the incoming freshman class. And the 500+ word essays are the only chance you have to separate yourself from the rest of the competition.BUT THERE IS HELP! The College Application Mastery Program (CAMP) is a home study course for students applying to college. CAMP takes you step-by-step from beginning the college list to submitting final college applications and everything in between. CAMP students learn: Ways to Reveal Your A+ Applicant - You have something amazing and unique to offer colleges. Will you brand yourself in a way that sets you apart, or will you be just another kid applying to college? Each application only gets 8 minutes for review. Make yours count. How to Write a Killer Personal Marketing Statement - You have limited words to set yourself apart from the 750,000 other students who are applying to college this year. How do you do that? Hint: It has nothing to do with what you have been taught about writing in school You Can Be a Great Project Manager - The deadline approaches. You procrastinate. The deadline gets closer. Your parents yell at you. You still procrastinate. The deadline is almost here and you ve barely started. Now, it s panic time. There are strategies to avoid this happening. Always Rock Your Interviews - How do you give a great interview? Practice and preparation. Even if...
